

Getting Started with Blue Jeans Events

ITS Service Desk - 2022-02-07 - General

Overview

Blue Jeans Events is an online events platform that allows you to keep your audience separate from your presenters. This gives your event a more professional feel and allows you to more easily control who can talk and be on camera.

Getting Access

Request Access to Blue Jeans Events by emailing the Service Desk at servicedesk@nursing.upenn.edu.

Getting Started

After receiving access to Blue Jeans Events you will see the Events tab across the top of your Blue Jeans account at <https://upenn.bluejeans.com/>. From here you can start to schedule your event. Be sure to review the resources below to better understand the features of Blue Jeans Events.
